1. An "International Baccalaureate Diploma/Diplôme du Baccalauréat International" obtained in accordance with the regulations of the "International Baccalaureate Organization (IBO)/Office du Baccalauréat International" is recognized as a university entrance qualification if it has been obtained after attending at least twelve ascending grades at schools with full-time teaching and the following conditions are met:
 - a) The six examination subjects of the "International Baccalaureate Diploma/Diplôme du Baccalauréat International" (IB) must include the following subjects designated according to IB terminology:
 - two languages at level A or B (including at least one advanced foreign language as "Language A"¹ or "Language B HL"²),

In addition to the subjects listed above, the sixth compulsory subject may be one of the following subjects designated according to the terminology of the IB:

- Art/Design⁵, Music, Theatre Arts⁶; Film, Literature and Performance, another modern foreign language, Latin, Classical Greek, General

¹ From exam 2013 Language A: Language and Literature or Language A: Literature.

For students who cannot receive instruction in their native language at their school, a corresponding school-supported self-taught course can be recognized as Language A: Literature SL.

² Applies from audit 2013.

³ Graduates who have completed Mathematics: Analysis and Approaches SL or Mathematics: Applications and Interpretation SL by the 2021 examination date can only be granted subject-specific university access for universities of applied sciences and universities for subjects that are not in the field of mathematics, science and technology. Exception: Graduates of the schools listed in Annexes 1 and 2 fulfill the relevant requirements in the subject of mathematics, so that general university admission is to be opened to them with the agreed acquisition of the IB Diploma.

⁴ Up to and including the 2020 examination Mathematics SL (before 2006 Mathematical Methods) or Mathematics HL or Further Mathematics in conjunction with Mathematics HL.

⁵ Called Visual Arts since May 2000.

⁶ Will be called Theatre from the 2009 audit.

3. The average grade for an "International Baccalaureate Diploma/Diplome du Baccalauréat International" is calculated in the country in which the certificate is assessed. The procedure is based on the "Agreement on the Determination of the Overall Grade for Foreign Higher Education Entrance Qualifications" (Resolution of the Conference of Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs of 15.03.1991, as amended) with the following specific regulation relating to the IB.

The calculation of the average grade (N) is based on the total number of points (P) shown in the "International Baccalaureate Diploma/Diplome du Baccalauréat International" as well as 42 points as the maximum number of points (Pmax) and 24 points as the minimum number of points (Pmin); any additional points achieved are also taken into account; total scores between 42 (Pmax) and 45 points (highest possible score of the IB plus the maximum 3 additional points achievable) are equated with the German average grade of 1.0.

The conversion is based on the following formula:

N	=	1 + 3	$\frac{P_{\max} - P}{P_{\max} - P_{\min}}$ with
N	=	grade sought (average grade)
P	=	Total score shown on the certificate
Pmax	=	42 points (total IB score without additional points)
Pmin	=	24 points (lower benchmark)
N	=	1.0 (for $42 \leq P \leq 45$)

4. The IBO continuously informs the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs of any changes to the final examination (requirements, content, organization) and gives the German school supervisory authority the opportunity to an insight into the work of the schools. If there is a need for consultation or at the request of a state, the Advisory Board for the Central Office for Foreign Education (ZAB) checks whether the requirements for recognition of the IB are still met.
5. This resolution shall enter into force on the day of its adoption by the Conference of Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs.
